WELLNESS COURSE MENU

different flavors of combined physical activity/discussion courses that each provide a tasting menu of skills to nourish your mind, body, relationships, & purpose

(and yes, even count towards the GIR!)

MEDITATION
variety of meditation techniques to promote mindfulness, self-awareness, & connection, and to identify a practice that works for you

STRESS MANAGEMENT
focus on bedtime routine planning and developing one's stress profile, to cognitive reframing, imposter syndrome, and more

RESILIENCY
topics include identifying one’s core values + character strengths, the awesomeness of failure, developing positive emotions, and more

HEALTHY FINANCE
focus on creating a budget, credit cards, hacks on saving money, building credit, how to pay off loans, and more

NUTRITION
topics include the importance of fruits and vegetables, protein, hydration, heart healthy fats, as well as a review of fad diets, mindful eating, and more

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS
from romantic partners to friendships to family, topics include active listening, identifying abusive, healthy, and unhealthy behaviors, one’s definition of love, and more

www.physicaleducationandwellness.mit.edu